

Shenzhen fastener smart manufacturing tea party held

On March 30, 2026, the Shenzhen Fastener Industry Association successfully hosted its annual Spring Tea Party in Shenzhen. The event, divided into a formal meeting and a gala dinner, featured a tight schedule and diverse content, fully demonstrating the association's internal cohesion and influence within the industry.

The meeting commenced at 3:00 PM with the national anthem. After a brief introduction of the agenda by the host, Wang Zhensheng, President of the Shenzhen Fastener Industry Association, delivered the opening speech. He warmly welcomed representatives from sister associations and industry guests, expressing his heartfelt gratitude for their long-term attention and support for the association's work.

Subsequently, Wang Chengju, Chairman of the China General Machinery Components Industry Association; Jiao Junhua, Secretary-General of the Fastener Branch of the association; Weng Kejian, Party Secretary of the Shenzhen Fastener Industry Association; and Huang Yongshun, Chairman of the association, delivered speeches. They reviewed the phased achievements of the association from multiple perspectives and conducted an in-depth analysis of the current industry landscape and future development directions.

During the meeting, Zeng Jinsheng, Executive Vice President of the Shenzhen Fastener Industry Association, presented the financial work report, while Zhang Haiyang, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, read the supervisory audit report to ensure transparency and compliance in the association's operations. Lin Ganjie, First Secretary of the Joint Party Committee of Shenzhen Advanced Manufacturing Industry Associations, also attended and delivered a speech, highly commending the association's industry service work under the guidance of party building.

Additionally, Ding Baoping, Director of the National Technical Committee for Fasteners Standardization, gave a special presentation on the construction of the standards system. Companies and platforms, including Dongguan Wangwei Intelligent Equipment Co., Ltd., Quanzhou Smart Manufacturing Platform, and Jinshang Platform, showcased their products and platforms, highlighting the innovation and vitality of the fastener industry.

At 6:00 PM, the gala dinner kicked off with an opening performance themed "A Spring Story." The host enthusiastically took the stage, and the association's leadership team opened with a chorus of "Ode to the Motherland," instantly igniting the atmosphere. Wang and Weng, along with the leadership team, then took the stage to propose a toast, extending sincere thanks to all attendees.

During the dinner, the organizers presented "Love Awards" and "Sponsorship Awards" to enterprises and individuals who had funded impoverished students in Hunan, highlighting the social responsibility of industry players. A special recognition session was also held to thank the logistics staff for their silent contributions. Multiple rounds of lucky draws followed, elevating the atmosphere to a climax as prizes ranging from fifth-place to the grand prize were announced, bringing continuous surprises to the audience.

Interspersed cultural performances were equally spectacular. A melodious flute solo and a classical Chinese instrumental performance added rich charm to the evening. The talent show "China in the Lights" performed by Guo Yulu from Jintai Hardware won rounds of applause.
